The housing market has inflated rents and utility costs have increased. New builds and redevelopment for affordable housing are slow to complete as is typical for such projects. The process length was only made worse by the recent pandemic supply shortages and cost increases. The rental moratorium, although keeping families in units, did have an inverse effect on landlords' ability to keep up properties when no rental income was coming in. The number of abatements due to noncompliant HQS housing has caused high numbers of relocating units. These families are looking in the same stretched market as those who have just been issued vouchers. Our waiting list has more than 4,500 people and of those over half reported, at the time of the application, needing a one-bedroom unit. This is consistent with our local COC, the Homeless Alliance of Western New York's Annual Report also spotlights the continual need for one-bedroom units. 82 percent of those on our waitlist reported being under 30 percent of AMI. The PHA's strategy for addressing this affordability issue has been to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Set regular payment standards above 100 percent of FMR • Employ exception payment standards (at or near 110 percent of FMR) in higher-cost areas • Approve individual exception payment standards as necessary to enable persons with disabilities to access housing and make use of the voucher program, utilize the 120 percent standard were necessary • Discourage rent inflation through the diligent determination of rent reasonableness • Encourage landlord participation through clear communication, timely inspection, reasonable rent negotiation, timely rent payments, and seeking additional vouchers whenever available • Evaluate and be amendable to receiving PBV and reviewing the possibility of utilizing existing vouchers • Review of the administrative plan to ensure removal of any barriers given the current housing status to remove barriers for any person securing housing Operation and Management PHA took advantage of the HUD Expediated Waivers offered in 2022. These included the ability to extend the search for new vouchers holder up to one year as needed and increasing the payment standard for all recipients prior to their annual recertification. If and when these become available again PHA will evaluate the need and apply for available waivers. PHA updated FSS Action Plan as directed by HUD. The waivers PHA administered are posted on PHA website as will the be the updated FSS Action Plan once approved by HUD: https://www.belmonthousingwny.org
B.2	New Activities. – Not Applicable

B.3	Progress Report. Provide a description of the PHA’s progress in meeting its Mission and Goals described in the PHA 5-Year and Annual Plan. PHA intends to apply for tenant protection vouchers if and when available. PHA increased the staffing of inspectors; providing comprehensive HQS training to newly hired inspectors and will continue to enhance their knowledge and skill during 2023. PHA provides a wide selection of housing opportunities to clients through Housing Resource Center, equipped with PCs, phones, internet access, etc. PHA offers a wide variety of housing/rental counseling, financial education, and homebuyer education/support groups. PHA offers homebuyers matched savings opportunities and referrals for down-payment and closing cost grants. PHA facilitates tenant moves to areas outside its jurisdiction, PHA promotes self-sufficiency by conducting ongoing follow-ups with FSS participants to encourage training and employment. PHA provides fair housing information and advocacy to tenants, landlords, staff, and the general public. PHA supports the work of fair housing organizations such as Housing Opportunities Made Equal (HOME). PHA intends to explore the viability of utilizing some current vouchers for project-based units PHA facilities a Tenant Voice Committee made up of clients and staff to help bridge communication and work together to enhance services. PHA utilized HUD-provided waivers to assist in unit lease up: extended search period for initial voucher holders and submitted increased payment standards prior to annual recertification
