Consistency with the Consolidated Plan or State Consolidated Plan

I, Daniel Howard, the Planning Director for the Town of Amherst, certify that the Annual PHA Plan for the fiscal year 2024 of the Erie County Consortium, Town of Amherst Lead PHA is consistent with the Consolidated Plan or State Consolidated Plan, including the Analysis of Impediments (AI) to Fair Housing Choice or Assessment of Fair Housing (AFH) as applicable to the

Local Jurisdiction Name

pursuant to 24 CFR Part 91 and 24 CFR § 903.15.

Provide a description of how the PHA Plan's contents are consistent with the Consolidated Plan or State Consolidated Plan.

The PHA Plan addresses the same renter-household needs as those identified in the Consolidated Plan (2020-2024) of the Amherst- Cheektowaga-Tonawanda (ACT) HOME Consortium. The consortium identified significant numbers of low-income renter households with cost burdens (>30% AMI) and severe cost burdens (>50% AMI). The Section 8 vouchers directly address this need by lowering the household cost burden.

The ACT HOME Consortium also recognizes the particular rental housing needs of large families, people with disabilities, and those who are or have recently been homeless. To the extent possible, the PHA has targeted vouchers to these populations.

The ACT HOME Consortium mentions the lack of affordable housing outside the City of Buffalo as a reason why many households use their voucher to rent in urban neighborhoods. The PHA Plan provides for Exception and Small Area Fair Market Rent (higher) Payment Standards to facilitate voucher-holders' ability to access higher-cost housing that is available in these suburban communities.

I hereby certify that all the information stated herein, as well as any information provided in the accompaniment herewith, is true and accurate. Warning: HUD will prosecute false claims and statements. Conviction may result in criminal and/or civil penalties. (18 U.S.C. 1001, 1010, 1012; 31 U.S.C. 3729, 3802)

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT OF 2005

INTRODUCTION

The federal Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) includes important legal protections relative to housing for victims of domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. Out of recognition that domestic violence is a leading cause of homelessness, and that victims of domestic violence are often discriminated against in housing because of the acts of their abusers, federal law now explicitly addresses some of these issues. Amendments to the Section 8 statute clarify that victims of domestic violence may not be evicted from or denied housing if the asserted grounds for the eviction is an instance of domestic violence. PHAs and all landlords, owners and managers participating in Section 8 Programs must comply with this law.

A. DEFINITIONS (as defined in VAWA)

Domestic Violence "includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other adult person against a victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies."

Dating Violence means "violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim, and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of the interaction between the persons involved in the relationship."

Stalking means "to follow, pursue, or repeatedly commit acts with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate; or to place under surveillance with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; and in the course of, or as a result of, such following, pursuit, surveillance, or repeatedly committed acts, to place a person in reasonable fear of death of, or serious bodily injury to, or to cause substantial emotional harm to: that person, a member of the immediate family of that person, or the spouse or intimate partner of that person."

Immediate Family Member is a "spouse, parent, brother or sister, or child of the person, or an individual with whom that person stands in loco parentis (in place of a parent); or any other person living in the household of that person and related to that person by blood or marriage."

Where this plan references "domestic violence" it is meant to include dating violence and stalking.

B. APPLICABILITY

PHAs and all landlords, owners and managers participating in the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program, Project-Based Voucher Program and Moderate Rehabilitation Program must comply with this law.

The VAWA protects an individual when even one incident of domestic violence occurs against the victim, and when that incident forms the basis for the PHA's or landlord's action against the victim. The law provides that criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, engaged in by a member of the tenant's household or any guest or other person under the tenant's control, shall not be the cause for termination of assistance or tenancy if the tenant or an immediate family member of the tenant's family is the victim or threatened victim of that abuse. The law explicitly provides that an incident of actual or threatened domestic violence does not qualify as a "serious or repeated violation of the lease."

VAWA states that a Section 8 landlord may bifurcate a lease in order to evict the offender while allowing the victim to remain in the assisted unit.

While the intent of this law is to protect victims of domestic violence from eviction and / or housing discrimination, it pennits eviction if the landlord demonstrates "an actual and immediate threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property" if the tenant's lease is not terminated.

C. DOCUMENTATION OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

If a tenant seeks protection under VAWA, the PHA or landlord may ask the tenant to provide verification of the domestic violence before complying with the law. However, nothing in the statute requires the PHA or landlord to ask for this documentation; they may comply based solely on the individual's statement or other corroborating evidence.

VAWA allows the PHA or owner responding to an incident of domestic violence that could affect the tenant's participation in the Section 8 program to request in writing that the individual submit documentation of the domestic violence within 14 days of the request. The PHA or owner may request that the individual use HUD form 50066 but may also choose to accept other documentation. If the tenant does not submit the requested documentation within 14 days, none of the protections afforded to victims of domestic violence apply. The PHA would be free to terminate assistance and the owner would be free to evict. However, the PHA or owner may also extend the deadline at its discretion.

In lieu of or in addition to the certification form, the PHA or owner may ask the tenant to provide a police or court record of the incident or documentation signed and attested to by an employee, agent or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney or medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing the domestic violence.

If the PHA or owner requires the HUD certification, they must first discuss the delivery of the form with the tenant as delivering it through the mail may place the victim at risk if the abuser monitors the mail.

D. DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE PHA

Since this statute primarily addresses lease termination and eviction, it tends to impact the actions of the property owner more often than the actions of the PHA. It is the owner who is prohibited from evicting the tenant and only rarely will the PHA have to consider whether or not the tenant's assistance should be terminated. However, there may be times when the PHA will have to determine if domestic violence played a role in the tenant's offending behavior.

For example, a tenant may move in violation of the lease and claim that they had to move in order to elude an abuser. In this case and others, the PHA has to decide whether or not the tenant's assistance should be terminated due to some program violation. In cases such as these, the PHA will require the tenant to submit timely documentation of the domestic violence.

It is also certainly possible that in spite of the PHA notifying owners of their obligations under VAWA, an owner may succeed in evicting a tenant in violation of VAWA. Therefore, it will be necessary for staff to ascertain the grounds for any eviction to ensure that the PHA does not end up terminate assistance (due to the eviction) in violation of VAWA.

The tenant may fully satisfy this PHA's documentation requirements by producing a police report or court record that documents the incident. Alternatively, the tenant may provide a statement in which an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence issues, attests that the professional believes that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of abuse. The victim must sign and attest to the third-party documentation, and the documentation must name the offender. The victim will be provided with and encouraged to use HUD form 50066, Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence or Stalking, to facilitate documentation and certification of the incident(s) of domestic violence.

Although the tenant is expected to submit documentation within 14 days of the date of request, the PHA may extend that deadline at its discretion.

E. CONFIDENTIALITY

If an individual provides certification or documentation of domestic violence, the PHA will keep that information confidential. The PHA will not share the information with any other entity unless the victim requests, in writing, that the PHA do so.

F. NOTICE TO TENANTS AND LANDLORDS

The PHA notified all participating tenants and landlords of their rights and responsibilities under VAWA by mailing each one a fact sheet.

The fact sheet has also been incorporated in the tenant and landlord handbooks to ensure that all future participants are aware of their rights and responsibilities relative to domestic violence and tenancy.

Furthermore, both handbooks provide instructions for obtaining HUD form 50066, Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking.
